

Wise Assessment Project

The project is exploring new ways of facilitating dialogue across the University of Hong Kong about 'wise assessment', surfacing and sharing insights from teachers and students.

'Wise assessment' practices are those that enhance student learning, are well-attuned to subject and professional requirements, and make effective use of available resources.

Mark the date: Join-the-Conversation events

June 16 (Tuesday) – Assessing Experiential Learning

June 18 (Thursday) – Enhancing Feedback

Wise Assessment Project Team

Prof. Grahame Billbow

Prof. Dai Hounsell

Dr. Tracy Zou

Ms. Sonia Cheung

Website

<http://www.cetl.hku.hk/wise-assessment-forum/>

Wise Assessment Briefings: Full Set Available in June, 2015

1. Assessing presentations in Common Core courses
2. Assessing in-class participation in Common Core courses
3. Assessing groupwork in Common Core courses
4. Assessing capstone projects and dissertations
5. Assessing experiential learning
6. The ethical dimension in experiential learning
7. Promoting students' assessment literacy
8. Ah!...So That's 'Quality'
9. Informal feedback: Feedback via participation
10. Feedback as dialogue
11. Commenting constructively
12. Flipping feedback

If you are interested in the Wise Assessment Project and wish to be kept informed about our ongoing work and activities, please leave us your contact information:

Name: _____ Email: _____

Institution/ Organisation: _____

Subject area: _____

Please give this form to your colleagues or friends who may be interested in the Wise Assessment Project and send the contact information back to CETL, HKU or soniacheung@hku.hk (Ms. Sonia Cheung).